

NOMINEE OF DRYS ATTACKS HARDING

Says G. O. P. Choice Voted Get Thirty Times and Dodged 1,163 Roll Calls.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Prohibition national headquarters last night issued a statement by Aaron S. Watkins, prohibition nominee for president, attacking the record of Senator Warren G. Harding on the wet and dry question.

Mr. Watkins declares he is unable to find any instance of Senator Harding voting for the drys, and cites figures designed to show that the Republican nominee voted with the wet on 30 occasions and as "absent or dodged" 1,163 roll calls and quorum calls.

The statement said: "It seems quite clear to me that the friends of Senator Harding have worked his meager prohibition record and have left in full efficiency a perfectly good and healthy herd of wet dogs which will continue to bark and howl against the prohibition of the United States."

He also voted against prohibition in Porto Rico. Moreover, he cast several votes against war-time prohibition, spoke at length against it and I have been unable to find any case in which he supported it.

In August, 1917, he supported the Reed amendment which provided that Congress should have no power to enforce the Eighteenth amendment until liquor manufacturers and dealers for the loss sustained by them through the closing of the business. It was Senator Harding who introduced the six-year clause, which the wetts consider prophetic of their future measure, his vote for the submission of the amendment was accompanied by a speech, in which he announced his opposition to it, and his vote was merely his consent to allow the people of the several states to settle the question.

Lynn Haines of Washington, in a review of Senator Harding's congressional record, credited him with 20 wet votes during his incumbency of the senate, and incidentally states that he was absent or dodged 1,163 roll calls and quorum calls.

Mr. Haines also pointed out that he has voted against every amendment to the revenue bill to increase the tax on profiteering and large incomes, and opposed publicly the profiteering figures. He further records him as voting with capital and against labor in every important test on that issue, and also as opposing public ownership in every form.

He spoke and voted for the Federal trade commission, opposed the abolition of secret sessions of the senate, opposed the independence of the judiciary, supported woman suffrage only after much reluctance and indecision. He seemed to be permanently allied with Lodge, Penrose, Smoot and Brandegee on most of the issues of outstanding interest to the nation.

MORTGAGE EXEMPTION FROM TAXES URGED

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Shortage of labor and the high cost of building materials are responsible for the housing shortage throughout the country. United States Senator Calder of New York yesterday informed representatives of job organizations gathered in city hall to discuss New York's particular problem.

Senator Calder told the meeting, called by the joint legislative committee on housing, that these four steps should be taken to relieve the situation:

1.—Exemption of mortgages up to the sum of $50,000 from provisions of the federal income tax.

2.—Exemption from all federal tax for 10 years of all profits of builders while engaged in actual construction, provided these profits are invested in construction of new buildings for dwelling purposes.

3.—Exemption from federal tax of mortgage on all new dwellings, regardless of the amount.

4.—Creation of a commission to modify the building code of the city of New York, removing restrictions on construction operations.

EXPRESS RATES RAISED.

AUSTIN, Tex., Aug. 24.—The Texas railroad commission late yesterday granted the application of the American Railway Express company for an advance of 12 1/2 per cent in intrastate express rates, with the reservation that the case is held open for modification of particular rates which may hereafter be found unreasonable, in the opinion of the commission.

TIDE OF EXPANSION TURNING, SAYS BOARD

"More Wholesome Judgment"
by Borrowers Noted.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Evidence of the turning of the tide of expansion was given last night by the federal reserve board in a statement which declared that "further expansion of bank credit apparently has been checked."

The board added, however, that application of the policy of restricting loans to essential requirements had not reduced the volume of loans and discounts of the country's banking institutions.

There has been an awakening of the public to the credit needs, according to the board's review, with the result that people are "taking stock" curbing their expected loans and exercising generally more wholesome judgment. The result sought to be accomplished by the board when it asked the banks to restrict the credit of so-called nonessential and speculative enterprises is being attained but not without the aid of higher interest rates, it was said.

In connection with the statement that expansion had been checked, the board mentioned the adoption of a scale of federal reserve banks, Atlanta, St. Louis, Kansas City and Dallas, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha, which was made possible under the Federal act.

The graduated discount rates have not been in effect long enough for their operations to show definite results, but the board is watching them closely because of the expected effect on the general credit situation. Application of the policy of restricting credit was held to be of aid in compelling a curbing of loans to the customers of the banks because, in turn, would not be able to obtain their requirements without paying the higher interest rates.

PLEA FOR LORD MAYOR IS MADE TO PRESIDENT

DUBLIN, Aug. 24.—Arthur Griffith, acting president of the "Irish republic," has sent the following cablegram to President Wilson and the heads of all the governments:

"I inform you that the lord mayor of Cork and duly elected deputy for the county of Cork, Ireland, was recently seized by the armed forces of England, arraigned before English military officers and forcibly deported from this country in an English war vessel, and he is in imminent danger of death in Brixton prison, London. I recall to your excellency the declaration made by the heads of the allied and neutral states when the burgomaster of Brussels was treated with a lesser indignity and harshness."

PRINCE ENTERTAINED.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Prince Carol of Rumania, seeing New York "incognito" after a tour of the country, yesterday was the guest of Abram I. Elkus, former United States ambassador to Turkey at an informal luncheon at the Bankers' club. James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, and George White, chairman of the Democratic national committee, were present.

PLANES ARE CURIOSITY.

NOME, Alaska, Aug. 24.—Prospectors, miners and natives from villages for miles around Nome greeted the four United States army aviators when they landed on the famous "Gold Beach." Many of them had never seen an airplane. Captain St. Clair Street, head of the airplane expedition, was enthusiastic over the flight.

THREE MORE FLYERS ENTER BIG TOURNAMENT

Three more daredevils have entered Sunday's aerial tournament. They are Leonard McMullin, Sam Harrell and Spider Burns. They are flying their own ships here from St. Louis, Mo., and are due to reach Memphis Friday night or Saturday.

Burns in a telegram announced that he would show the judges a more sensational feat in changing planes and more daring work in wing walking and death-defying feats in the air than would be shown by Wright. Burns will conclude his performance by plunging from his plane in a sensational parachute leap.

Four parachute jumps are now assured, two of which will be made by women, fighting for the title now held by Miss Lutes. Miss Rosebud Roberts, Chicago challenger, will have to make three points to wrest the title from Miss Lutes. She will have to leap from an altitude of more than 5,000 feet, will have to reach the ground before Miss Lutes and will have to excel her rival in piloting her chute to a spot nearer the grand stand than the hazardous of all contests, changing from an automobile to an airplane. There are already three entries in this event.

The remaining days before the tournament will be busy ones for the daredevils who are soon to risk their lives in the air. Thursday night all the flyers will be guests of Alma Goodman on the Astor. Mr. Goodman says he has arranged a big time and that he will offer a purse to the woman who will travel from the Falls building roof to front street by the parachute route.

Friday morning the tournament entrants will be guests of the American Legion at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon, where George Wright and Miss Lutes are both scheduled for short addresses.

Thursday evening George Haldeman and Eugene Johnson will be guests of the Citizens club. Haldeman will make a talk on how it feels to travel five miles above the earth and Johnson will describe his plunge from a plane into the Arkansas river.

Saturday morning the entrants will be taken for an auto tour of the parks.
